OFFICERS OF COLUMBIA CO.

President Judge-Hon. William Elwell. Associate Judges- { Irm Derr, Peter K. Herbein, Proth'y and Cl'k of Courts—Jesse Coleman. Register and Recorder—John G. Freeze.

Commissioners - Allen Mann, John F. Fowler,

Commissioners— John F. Fowler,

(Montgomery Cole.)

Sheriff—Samuel Snyder,

Treasurer—John J. Stiles.

Auditors—{ Daniel Snyder,
 L. B Rupert,
 John P. Hannon,
 Commissioner's Clerk—Win, Krickbaum,
 Commissioner's Attorney—E. H. Little,
 Bicreantile Appraiser—Capt. Geo. W. Utt.
 County Surveyor—Isano A. Dewitt.
 District Attroney—Milton M. Trangh. District Attroney—Milton M. Traugh. Coroner—William J. Ikeler. County Superintendent—Chas. G. Barkley. Assesors Internal Revenue—R. F. Clark.

Assessors Internal Revenue—1. 1. C. John Thomas,
Assistant Assessor—

| S. B. Diemer,
J. H. Ikeler, Collector - Penjamin P. Hartman.

NEW STOVE AND TIN SHOP. ON MAIN STREET, (NEARLY OPPOSITE MILLERS STORE) BLOOMSGUET, PA. Title undersigned has just fixed up, and opened, has new STOVE AND TIA SHOP, in this place, where he is propared to make up new 11. WAZE of all kinds in his lone, and do repair it whit nextures and dispatch, upon the most grassonable terms. Hendro Recus 2n thool STOVES of various patients and styles, which he will self upon torms to suit uprchasers.

Give him... 'Il. He is a good mechanic, and deserving of its public patronage.

JACOB METZ.

Bloomsborg flopt. 9, 1866,-17. BALASTER FOR SALE.

The unduragued is about fittin up a

PLASTER MILL ST the PENN FURNACE MILLS, and will offer to the pathic ONE HUNDRED TONE BEST

Novia Scotia White Plaster proposed roads for use in quantities to sail purchase est, at any time from the dist of Sarch next.

J. S. MeNINCO.

Catawices, Jon. 23, 1867. ROOT AND SHOE SHOP. OSC A P. SIRTON.

Respectfully informs the public that he is now propored to no not figure all kinds of BOOTS AND SHOES, at the LOWEST Possible Prices; at short active and in the very best and latest styles. Mr. Girlint, the ca well-known in theoretically habital many years of successful appetence with a reputation for good work, integrity and from rathe dealing interpolated by sirvers on South East Corner of Main and Iron Streets, over J. E. Gittan's Store. Bladensburg, Oct. 10, 1866 - Jan.

TORKS HOTEL, GEG. W. MAUGER, Proprieter.

The slave well known hotel has recently and a good calculated changes in its internal arrangements and its proposed an amountees to his topicer end the proposed and the travelling position that has accommodations for the camout of ma guests are second to more in the commercy. Whe table will slavays be found any piece, not only with substantial food, but without the editories of the season. His wine and diplomatic feature that couplar beverage known as "Mollegey purchased direct from the imparting humas, also shifted purchased direct from the imparting humas, also shifted purchased for a linear paramage in the part, and will continue to deserve it in the future.

June 13, 1506 - 16.

June 13, 1366 - 16. ACHINE AND REPAIR SHOP.

THE nodersiened would most respectfully an nonnee to the public generally, that he is presented to exceed all kinds of MacHINLEY in Figure 1 nice to have a show of our own, and each a SHAPPLESS FOLNDIY. In classificate, where he can have a se foral ready to do all books of expair. can reverse or local remay to on all blodd of repairing including Threshing Me limes, main in short, and the work of Farming Ut-usits. ALSO, TURNING AND FITING UP OF CASTING AND MAURINERY, some on short satisfies in a good working with man her, upon the most reasonable series.

His long experience to the blumess as for man in the short of tewns it. Mans of the place for over nine years warrants from in a sping that he can give railing years warrants from in a sping that he can give chire set starting to all who may have fin with here work.

GEORGE HASSEET

GEORGE HASSERT, Bioomstarg, Nov. 21, 1866.

FALLON HOUSE, subscriber having purchased the Tallion

LOUR BAVEN, Pa, ity of E. W. Begeng, Esq., would set to the est the though his approximately and the pub-nerally, that for there's to there a field, representations and compare of a freeze array substitution personage.

3. OFF EXECUTE.

Late of the Madison Pouse, Philadelphia.

Haven, ber ext. Issue.

MISS LIZZIE PETERMAN.

announce to the ladies of Bloom burg and | bonds. spring and Summer

Stock of MILLINERY GOODS.

stallar of all action a usually found in hist class library Stores. Her greats are of the hest quality 4 annes the most handsome and cheapest takes ract. Left and examine them for yourselves. manil & Rupert, manuel, May 2, 1864.- 1f.

RUGS, DRUGS, DRUGS. eines, at John R. Moyer's Deng Stat

DRE DRUGS, QUALITY GUARANTEED.

escriptions carefully compounded at Moyer's chart's Tor Cordial. Baker's Cod Liver Oil, slow's Booking Syrop, sold at Moyer's Doug any reliable patent medicines, call at Moyer's LUMBIA CO., PA. THE subscriber, proprietor of the above named ex thatis we establishment, is now prepared to receive orders of Machinery. MACHINES, &C., &C. ake Stoves, all sizes and everything usually made in es,ed near the Lackawa

THE Bloomsburg Democrat.

15 PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY IN BLOOMSBURG, PA., BY WILLIAMSON IS. JACOBY.

BATES OF ADVERTISING.

One square, 2.50 3.50 4.60 6.60 10.00 Two squares 2.50 5.60 6.00 9.00 14.00 Three 2.50 7.00 8.50 17.00 17.00 14.00 Pour squares 6.40 8.60 10.50 14.00 20.00 Haff column, 10.80 12.50 14.00 15.00 20.00 One column, 15.00 18.00 20.00 30.00 30.00 30.00

Enginers notices, without savening naver to reforce per line.

Francisch alvertiesments payable in advance all others due after the first musetonit.

5.7 OFFICE-in Shive's Block, Cor. of Main dan tran Streets.

M. H. JACORY.
Sthomsborg, Columbia County, Pa

TORRE CHEED BEGONERINTELAUD.

BY MISS ALICE CARRY.

When first the skies grow warm and bright, And flash with gold the hours, And, in her pale, faint rokes, the Spring Is calling up the flowers; When children, with undippered feet, Go fourth with hearts of glee. To the straight and even furrows

Where the yellow corn and the, What a beautiful embodiment Of each devoid of pride, Is the good old lishioned homostead, With the doors still open wide! But when the happiest time is come,

That to the year belongs, I uplands bright with harvest gold. Ap I mentows full of songs, When fields of yet surripened corn, And daily garnering stores,
Reminds the theity husbandmen
Of ampler threshing floors—
Liew pleasant from the din and dust
Of the thoroughfure aloof,
Series the old-fishioned homestead,
With steep and mossy roof!

When home the woodsmen plods, with axe

Upon his shoulder swong, And in the knotted apple-tree Are seythe and sickle bung When light and swallows twitter 'Neath the rafters of the shed, And the table on the ivied porch With discent care is spread -The hearts are lighter and freer Than best in the populous town, In the old-fushioued homestead.

With gables sharp and brown I

When the flowers of summer perish And the little birds with weary wings Have gone across the main; When curls the blue make upward Towards the bluer sky. And cold along the naked hills And white the snow drifts lie --In legands of love and glory.
They forget the cloud and storm, In the eld-fachioned homestead With hearth-stone number and warm

GREAT AMERICAN SHOW. we will ride out and see our show. It is so

"Ca slow driver, so at to not jelt medam my money. I will tell you, now. You know that the box which I keep in the bank? That is full of United States Bonds. My fortune is in Bonds. I draw $60,000 a year in gold as interest, and as I have no tixes to pay, of comes we can enjoy all this

You see this first care? That is a farmer one of our slaves. He is a working tool of ours - a well meaning man carried away by the negro gap, erasy on that subject, but entirely willing to devote his days to labor to pay taxes to support me in idleness. I pay no taxes-he is willing to pay them all, and to pay interest in gold on my pile of cup as their earnings are snatched away!

Ah, my dear, she works hard-washes with pans, churns, rubs, scrubs, patches and shall not spend their money, but give it all daens-sells eggs, chickens and turkeys to us to get a little money to pay back to us as taxes. Sometimes she weeps and mourns over her lot of toil, but we must not hear her, my dear!

The next cage contains a returned soldier. a mechanic. He was a nice man, went to war, fought, last a leg came home and is now working to pay taxes to support the government and to pay us nabobs.

h that right ?" Pshaw! my dear! Don't ask such foolish questions! Might makes right, you know! He was a poor foot. He believed all us ported cologue over my face-the sight of Radicals said, and he was so engaged fighting for his country that he did not notice how nicely us good, loyal, stay-at-home Radicals, by the aid of our loyal, speculating Congress, wound the bonds about him. He for the cotton our cousin made so much man a least a protect of the cotton our cousin made so much man a least a least a least a least a protect of the cotton our cousin made so much man a least a l ing to redeem his home from the mortgage we put on while he was gone, and to raise BLOOMSBURG, CO. his portion of the $300,000,000 a year in gold we bondholders demand as interest. You know poor men always work the best when they are in debt! That is why a national debt is a national blessing! Drive on, slowly! "Wha is that poor teoman?" Oh, she is another one of our victims. She had a husband, he went to war, took a cold while on a raid for cotton, mules, and silver were for the benefit of Curtiss, Logan. PATER BILLMYER children. The government is real good to size is that of a small pigeon.

her-pays her a bounty-a few pence a day for her to dream of her murdered husband.

As us Bondholders pay no taxes, and ic does not cost us one cent to support the America should have bounties so long as they

Drive on, slowly! "Who is that in cage 4?"

ging gold for us bondholders. Don't-disturb him-don't say anything till we pass

Montana lead us to fear a little trouble from But hear is a cage my dear, which is nice. sure we don't pay for their support, but we ies, widows and children of the country to est in gold and sandwich our claims between bounties and orphans, and so the willing people of America toil on! Am't it nice, my dear to be smart, and run this show to suit a few of us bondholders?

Never min'l that cage, my dear? Driver erack up the horses a little! Touch that off one a little on the flanks with the whale-

That eage is full of fallen women, victims of political preachers, members of Congress, government officers, lecherous old deacons and others of the God and morality party. They were once good girls, good women, but they fell during the war. But in another-a nation which grinds one see- that was the case. I have been around the they pay taxes to support us bondholdersthey furnish amusements for our manly sons-they add to the revenue, and their cages are distills which gather gold from infamy, and that gold buys the laces you wear my dear! Drive on John!

A very pretty one, my dear. Hold on driver! Don't you hear the music of machinery? The victims there are the factory operatives of New England-slaves to wealth-toilers to support us. We work | might say that we are a h-ll of a nation, them early and late-pay them in green or will be if Mr. Summer and his school of backs, while our interest is payable in gold. patriots are allowed to run the machine They work more hours each day than ever did the slaves of the South. They live poorer, and work harder. We raise their wages once and then lower them three times-they work at the sound of the whistle or tap of the bell-march to their boarding houses in long lines, like convicts, eat from boarding house tables and make excellent slaves. If they knew their strength they would upset their cage, but the sturdy negro there, with his rod keeps them in very with his great steal hook, go around and we have been looking at them, and it will serve to buy wine and game for our dinners, pianos for our house, rilks for you, and more Bonds for me!

Watch sharp, my dear! You see how the poor victims act as the book draws out their carnings! Lean a little back, for some of them have seen us and talk of-Repedia-

Great God! But that word makes me tremble !

Now we can watch them unobserved! See the farmer hold his nehing back as the hook drags out his carnings! See the widow weeps and looks with tearful eyes upon her dying child as the hook brings to us the little she has carned!

See the laborers rush to the dronkard's They say they might as well spend their money for beer and whisky as to support us Bondholders, so we will enact laws that they Hurry up, Mr. Keeper-rake out all you can-lead my carriage and we will be off to drink the wine and enjoy the luxuries us Bondholders purchase with the money hooked from the victims that make up our great show. Kiss your fingers to the victims, my dear! They work better if we notice them a little. Wave your embroidered handkerchief to the cage we hastened by that the inmates may see our style and treat our sons with more attention. Rub a little of that imsweat on the faces of our victims makes mine a little sticky! Don't put your feet up pets of Radierlism and must act discreetly!

Drive on, Jehu! of Brazil, a sound is some times heard, so singular that the sound seems quite unnatural; It is like the distant an diolemn tolling of a church bell, struck at intervals .-This extraordinary noise proceeds from the ara wanda. The bird sits on the tops of the highest trees in the deepest forests, and though constantly heard in the most desert places is very rarely seen. It is impossible to conceive anything of a more solitary character than the profound silence of the woods broken only by the metalic and almost su-Butler, Banks, and other thieving generals, and at last died in a hospital. His wife, or his widow, is now working to support the children. The government is real good to size is that of a small pigeon.

In this wife, or wherever you go. The arawanda is white with a circle of red around its eyes. Its children. The government is real good to size is that of a small pigeon.

In this widow, is now working denoted by the political din as he was by General Lex's suggested. The government is real good to size is that of a small pigeon.

In this widow, is now working to support the carry and I have settled that already. The government is real good to size is that of a small pigeon.

In this widow, is now working to support the carry and I have settled that already. The government is real good to size is that of a small pigeon.

In this widow, is now working to support the carry and I have settled that already. The government is real good to size is that of a small pigeon. pernatural sound of the invisible bird, com-

Are we a Nation !

Mr. Sumner is shortly to lecture in Indianapolis, and by way of paving the way for his theme the Herald of that city says: pay them themselves from their own earnings orate for the Young Men's Library Asso- of the State. and do not force us protected boulholders to ciation, on which occasion Mr. Summer, the pay them! Let them have bounties-by classic and scholarly, and so forth, will proall means-and our interest is payable in pound the above question to himself, and among our citizens, some holding that we and can not sleep comfortably o'nights, You see those orphans all at work? They until they have heard Mr. Sumner, and are our slaves-their fathers died in battle such is their impatience to put an end to and us bondholders support them. To be the awful suspence in which they hang that the above, says: they can hardly wait the tedious revolutions levy taxes on the farmers, miners, mechan- of the earth upon its axis necessary to bring about the fulness of time. We are neither support these institutions. We mix up classic nor scholarly, but we will endeavor these things, taking care to draw our inter- to anticipate Mr. Sumner. Having looked at the question in all its bearings, we decide and yet governs, one half its territory with- the Governor's office given to Judge Thurout such consent-a nation which mobs its man. President-anation which supports a Freed- A letter from Xenia to the New Lisbon men's Bureau-a nation which gives the Potriot, says : franchise to a debased and ignorant race in one section and denies them the same favor tion to powder between the upper and nether | polls most all day, and have seen full-bloodmillstones of partien hate-a nation which ed, jet black, thick-lipped niggers go up and defies John Brown and would hang Jeff. put their votes in, and not be challenged. I Davis on a sour apple tree-a nation in which the widow of a late lamented Presi-York, and threatens to "squeal" if somebody doesn't come "down with the dust." Not to put too fine a point on it, and without the least intention of being profune, we much longer. - Philadelphia News.

A Most Horrible Outrage.

Pennsylvania avenue. Lizzie Sevier, a girl follow. ger, in the above street, in the Fifth Ward, city, It is a very nice show, my dear! And cles of clothing. About nine o'clock she lition friends, on Tuesday, and their votes now we will see the fun! The keeper will, returned, and was seen at North street by there received, in opposition to the earnest several persons who board at Mr. Wolfin- pretest of the Democratic challengers. No draw out the scrip they have carned while ger's. Within fifteen minutes afterwards groes voted in every part of the State where these men proceeded towards the hotel, and their sympathizing white friends had confound the girl prostrate on the side walk, trol of the ballot-box. about forty yards from the Eagle House, and in an insensible condition. She was Stubenville Herald: carried to the hotel and physician called im- It is estimated that at least 2,000 negroes mediately, when it was discovered that her voted the Radical ticket in Ohio last Tueshead and face had been horribly beaten and day. Their names have been taken down lacerated and her body outraged in a shock- and returned to the proper authority. If ing manner. All possible attentions were the next Legislature of Ohio, which is congiven her and everything done that could ceded by all parties will be Democratic, only sensible at three o'clock this afternoon, and chuled from the total result. by that bode searcely any hope for her recovery was enter- in counting the result for State officers in tained. Who committed the outrage is not | the different counties. We have no doubt known. Whoever he was be chose the dark- but that that body will also pass a law that ness of the night to effect his escape from will hereafter prevent negroes from voting the scene of his butchery.

arrest of the fiend who could thus attack an box these officers were sworn to protect. unprotected female, and ruin her, if not cause her death. If captured he should not graph. store by the morning train of the Lehigh so far for we are aristocratic, now-protected | Valley Railroad on Monday morning last. He was a boatman from Beach Haven or Columbia county, named Lewis Musselman. His injuries are severe, but there are hope-THE BIRD OF THE TOLLING BELL .- ful indications of his recovery. His wants Among the highest woods and deepest glens have been ministered to by the Odd Fellows of Wilkes-Barre, he being a member of that order. He lies at the North Branch Hotel, and Mr. Thos. Boyd, the proprietor, has kindly shown him every attention .-Luzerne Union.

When old John Anders was on his death bed, he called his young wife Jannet to him. "Jannet," said he, "I am not long for this world. I am wearing away fast. Now about the busines, Jannet .-There's andrew, the foreman; he knows all about the shop, and all the customers like

The Radical Governor of Ohio How Crooked Things are Made Elected by Negro Votes.

There is no doubt that a very large government, we are willing all the women of On the 30th Mr. Summer—Charles Summer for the Radical Governor of Ohio, in direct River causes alarm. A peculiarity of the cast a vote—that first of civil duties: -the classic and scholarly Sumner-will violation of the Constitution and the laws slide is that horrible stenches arise from the

The Fayette County Register says . answer it himself. There has been a great protestations of schite men, and we are glad, newed. It is well known that beneath the diversity of opinion on the above point we rejoice to say, that through this NEGRO hard blue clay that generally underlies the That my dear is a poor miner -he is dig- are a nation, and some that we are not. The this township, the men who were instra- sand, which is very easily washed out by most intense anxiety prevails to hear Mr. mental in bringing it to the polls, have any current striking against the bank, as is Saumer, the classic and scholarly, and have been "hoisted with their own petard;" and the case along this land slide. The weight him, for the returns from California and the vexed question of nationality settled the white men of the township have rebukforever. Our people can not venture to be ed the advocates of negro suffrage, and east supported, breaks off from the main land certain about it, one way or another, their ballots against the amendment and the and tumbles into the river. Such an occur-

"I have often heard that full-blooded ne- river increased and diminished by the wash- into undignified retirement groes voted here, and I stopped to see if ing away of the quicksand. was told the reason why they were not challenged was, that it dare not be done. There for a white man to get there."

That paper adds:

do wrong, there is no remedy against them. One of the most brutal outrages we have The good sense of the people must regulate ever been called upon to record was perpetibeir conduct, and when they do what they party who have forced them into the de- who were captured by our forces, and betrated about nine o'clock last evening, on know is not right, the consequences must struction which must follow their present of about eighteen years of age, employed at The Mount Vernon Banner has the the Eagle House, kept by M. Levi Wolfin- following account of the doings in that proceeded early in the evening to har home. Five negroes were taken to the polls in in the lower end of the city for certain arti- the Fourth ward in this city, by their Abo-

We make the following extract from the tend to her relief. Miss Sevier was still in- does its duty, these negro votes will be exin Ohio, they will rake the penalty so ac-This occurrence has caused a greant seasa- vere to receive negro votes that Judges of tion in our millst. Our citizeds are surrody elections, who may have easy consciences, able to realize that so belinour an outrage will not venture hereafter in the experiment could be committed on our streets so early of receiving negro votes. Three thousand in the evening, when hundreds of the citizens negroes voting in Ohio, or any number of are moving to and fro. We trust the city them doing so, is not only a disgrace to the authorities will take the matter in hand and officer who received their votes, but also to by offering a liberal reward aid in effecting the great State, whose purity of the ballot-

The Cleveland Plaintegler declares that In the City of Cleveland in the first, see be allowed a hearing before a judge or jury. ond, third, fourth, and sixth wards full blood-He should be swung from the nearest lamp- el negroes voted against the protests and post until dead, and his vile careas then dis- challenges of Democrats. In fact, no atplayed between heaven and earth as a warn-tention was paid to law, and the votes of ing to other wretches that our people will negroes were received with smiles and jests not permit such creatures to live in a re- by the judges. We have a Democratic Legspeciable community.-Harrisburg Tele islature now, and it should pass a stringent law which will forever prevent a repetition RAILBOAD ACCIDENT. - A man who was of such shameful and deliberate outrages knocked off the trestling at the Baltimore as were perpetrated in this city on Tuesday last. We intend to refer to this matter again, and give some facts that will make the cheeks of some men tingle with shame.

What do the people of Pennsylvania think of such conduct? The election for the present year is over, but the infamous Radicals will be appealing to them for their votes a year hence. Let them remember these things, and not suffer themselves to be hood winked and blindfolded by any specious promises which will be made on the evo of the Presidential election. GRANT IN A QUANDARY.-General

Grant and the Mongrel party are both in bad situation as neither understands what the other is going to do. Since the late elections, the General is not half so radical as he was, and if he makes up his mind that the Mongrel candidate for the Presidency is going to be defeated in 1868, he will not allow himself to be the man. Poor

A recent settling of a large section of fissures made, and the authorities are busily at work filling them up in order to preserve Twenty-three negro votes were polled in the health of the city. The movement is est peril. Before New Year's the frosts of this town on Tuesday, notwithstanding the | maporarily arrested, but is likely to be re-VOTE, which never before was polled in alluvium at the surface there is a quickmen in the midst who advocated this mon- rence happened at Davis' Bend two years States show most conclusively that Mr. The Cincinnati Eaquirer, commenting on in apparent safety. All things appeared as right, always efficient," is fast operating on What transpired there, took place all bank, for three or four rods in width and over the State. Not less than 600 negro several more reds in length, suddenly erackvotes, we are assurred, were east in Greene ed off and fell into the river, earrying the since, I remarked that every Democratio County alone, in defiance of the law. They goods and whatever else was on the bank voter had voted in this election district, so were taken in Cleveland in considerable down the swift current, that scattered them that it was not our fault that the State was numbers, and largely in the Western Re- all around the bend for twenty-five miles- lost. I trust we shall make as clean a sweep that we are a nation, and no ordinary nation serve. Some even were taken in Cincinnati. This process has been continued on both this fall, and the indications are that we at that. We are a nation in which If General Hayes is elected, he probably sides of the "cut-off," until the whole shall get some votes from the moderate Remore than one half of the "subjects" are owes it to this fraudulent negro vote. Our breadth of the clay bed was thus broken top. publicans. Old as I am I feel the same indenounced as traitors—to the government Democratic friends owe it to themselves to and the whole mighty current of the river terest for our distracted country as I did in by the remaining minority—a nation in obtain a list of all these negro voters, and if swept through the new channel like a mill the war of 1812, when I shouldered my which the government professes to derive its they amount, in magnitude, to Hayes' made and twenty-five miles of the channel masket and did eight months duty on the power from the consent of the governed, jority, the election should be contested, and was at once saved to the steamboutmen - frontier. I hope yet to live to see our "The Bend" is now an island. The same country united and happy, and so leave it to thing happened at Terrapin creek last year, my children. This will, however, never be cutting off a bend of eighteen miles; and brought about until the people rise in their

War of Races Begun.

The niggers of Richmond have formed a a Vigilance Committee and notified two prophet to fortell the consequences, if the niggers attempt to carry out the order. If If men of the color of Frank are permitted can be counted by months instead of years, acts. - Columbia Herald.

no mean reputation. The wag, talking to at Night, of members of both armies, ease was properly managed, a good thing made under the mystic sign. could be realized for himself and a good fee made to the lawyer.

At this point the legal gentlemen in question put in:

"What's that you say-in need of a lawyer-good case-paying fee? The law is my profession - state your case."

"My case is undoubtedly an excellent one, and I am willing to pay most-liberal contingent fou-I eng't afford any fee certain ! will give you one half of the amount if you succeed -which is five hundred dollars. Do you undertake?" "I do-state your case."

lars for me and I will divide it." Exit wag, with a ponderous boot in dangerous proximity to his coat-tail.

RATTLESNARE ADVENTURE. - Sportsmen | tence. out hunting. Last Wednesday three citi- which must continue to drive the Union men zens of Wooster - W. C. Townsend, L. S. of the war to the support of the old Demo-Odell's Lake, and though eminently success- door to all loyal men opposed to negro poing "dead ducks" themselves.

whizzed their tailes like a hundred grass- cratic party during the war will have a conhoppers in operatic chorus. One of the trolling influence in that party should it venomous reptiles came near putting its again get into power, but we cannot see that fangs into Townsend as it sprang at him, any measures they would propose would be and it was only by his activity and prompt more destructive of the Union, the happishot of Harrison that he was not bitten .- ness and prosperity of our people, than the The mate was shot by Townsend, while measures which have and may be forced Sprague was active in the protection of his upon the country by the radicals who have comrades. The body of one of the snakes thus far been too successful in controlling was brought home, measuring nearly four the party organization opposed to the Demofeet, having six rattles. - Wayne County cracic party. - Huntingdon Globe.

A PUZZLED JUSTICE.-There was once a very illiterate gentleman-one Peter Patterson-appointed as a justice of the peace. The first day his clerk handed him a duplicate writ.

"Well, what shall I do with it?" was his time, that "he could drink like a beast."-

"My nishuals-what are they?" "Why, two P.'s," replied the clerk, impatiently. Cold presperation stood on the foreber

A True Democrat.

The following letter, taken from the new York World should shame the men who number of negro votes were openly cast Vicksburg, bordering on the Mississippi congratulate themselves on never having LAIDSVILLE, October 23, 1867. Sin :- It seems that you call on the old Democrats at this time of our country's greatseventy-eight winters will have whitened my locks, and if my life is spared until the ides November I shall cast my fifty-sixth Democratic vote without one failure at our annual elections. Although I cannot do as I have done in rallying our veters, yet I shall do all I can to further the good cause. I triet, and I think we shall make some inroads on Radicalism. The results in other ago. A lot of sutlers landed on the shere Van Buren's "second seber thought always for weeks before, but in a short time the the people. The old proverb is a truism, "Rats leave rotten, sinking ships."

At the close of the election, two years thus generally is the crookedness of the might, and send Stevens, Sumner & Co:

Respectfully Pomeor Jones.

Masonry in Texas.

The M. W. G. Master in his address bewhite men to leave the city within forty-eight fore the Texas Grand Lodge in 1866, thus hours, for discharging negroes who voted refers to Masonry in that State during the dent hawks the fruits of shameless bribery has been from two to three hundred niggers the radical ticket. We do not approve of late war. The recital of such facts is well and corruption through the streets of New around the polls all day. It was impossible the white men's course, but it takes no calculated to produce a favorable opinion of the designs and principles of the Order. The Federal army, in the destruction of Frank Johnson, a colored brother, voted military rule and the presence of an army property at Hampton Court House, saved in Salem last Tuesday. He is not half are not sufficient to prevent the southern the property of the Lodge, and returned it white, and the Trustees who received his niggers from taking the law into their own safely to its custodian under a flag of truce vote ought to know it as well as anybody .- hands, their existence in the United States so, too when Brother Wainright fell on the deck of the Harriet Lane, in her defence, to vote, there is no use in the constitutional and there will not be enough of them left his remains were interred by the brothren amendment. Where Trustees determine to to quarrel about at the next Presidential of Harmony Lodge, No. 5, at Galveston, election. We do not blame but pity the with Masonic Honors, and a singular specniggers; the blame rests with the Radical tacle was presented of the prisoners of war longing to the Order, marching in procession with the brethren, as though for a time a truce had been proclaimed and clang of PRETTY GOOD,-We heard of a pretty arms was to be heard no more. Many incigood joke which occurred recently not dents have taken place on the high hills and a thousand miles away from this town. A low valleys of New Mexico and Arizona wag of the incorrigible school-a regular which will be collected ore long for the press. cuss in fact-was sitting in a company of Only one need be referred to at present, gentlemen, one of whom was a lawyer of which was a Fraternal meeting in a Lodge another individual, but talking for the ear met on the level, and next day were in deadof the lawyer, aforesaid, stated that he de- ly conflict on the battle field. Much suffersired the service of a good lawyer, that he ling has been alleviated, charity has been had an important case, out of which, if suc- extended to the wounded and sick, death cessful, as he could not full to be, if the has often been prevented, and a surrender

Party Reconstruction.

During the war there was a "Union Party." Its platform was "the Union, the whole Union, and nothing but the Union." The "boys in blue" fought upon this platform. The war over, the radical negro influence commenced a reconstruction of the platform of the party and succeeded in disorganizing the party by taking from the platform the Union plank and putting in its duce negra political equality. Since then the platform has been going down-down-"I want you to borrow five hundred dot, until public opinion has determined to completely crush it. The black thing is already a wreek, and by the time the November elections are over the radical platform will be among the things that once had an exiscannot be too careful. We hear of acci- What next? Will the leaders persist in dents, or dangers, nearly every day while the wrong-persist in pursuing a course Harrison and C. Sprague-took a trip to eratic organization?-or will they open the ful in baging game, came very near becom- litical equality and the Democratic organization and its leaders? We have no doubt They fell in with gamey ra t'esnakes, who the same leaders who controlled the Demo-

DRINKING LIKE A BEAST. -Being at a wedding party where there were some wild young men, they proposed that Rev. Mr. Murray should drink wine with them; to this he ascented, remarking at the same At this they stared at each other and wink-"Nothing but sign your initials," was his ed, plainly intimating that they would make him go the entire animal. After drinking a glass he positively refused to take any more. They then reminded him of his promise; to which he replied :- "I have performed my promise-I have had enough, and a beast pen, and with desperation in his face wrote "Too pere."

Always leaves of when he has had enough."

The reproof was keenly falt, and, it is said